

Hong Kong is one of the world's key financial markets. CUMBA and the Department of Finance are pleased to announce the introduction of a new study scheme leading to the award of both an MBA and MSc in Finance degree to cater for the needs of finance professionals.

Study periods

For students who start MBA first		For students who start MSc in Finance first
Full time MBA (16 months)	Part time MBA (24 months)	MSc in Finance (16 to 19 months) in part time mode * Students may apply for up to a maximum of 5 MBA in Finance course exemptions
MSc in Finance (16 to 19 months) in part time mode * Students may apply for up to a maximum of 4 MSc in Finance course exemptions		Full time MBA (16 months)	Part time MBA (24 months)
Total duration will approximately be: 28 to 40 months

Benefits of the programme

- Receive advanced education both in management and finance
- Taught by world-class faculty members holding Ph.D. degrees from renowned universities such as Columbia Business School, Duke University, HEC, New York University and the Wharton School
- Students are eligible for applying course exemptions in MBA and MSc in Finance to complete their studies in a relatively short period of time

Admission requirements

MBA / MSc in Finance
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Bachelor Degree with Honours (not lower than Second Class Lower Division or B Grade) or equivalent professional qualification ● GMAT score obtained within the last 5 years (*GRE score also applicable to MSc in Finance applicants) ● At least 3 years post qualification full-time work experience (*for MBA applicants) ● Completion of undergraduate-level Financial Management (or equivalent) prior to the start of the Programme (*for MSc in Finance applicants who are of other disciplines)